

Terms of Business Agreement

Please read this document carefully. It sets out the terms upon which Gator Bikesure Limited (“we”, “us”, “our” or “Gator Bikesure”) agrees to provide insurance services to you and contains details of our regulatory and statutory responsibilities. Please contact us immediately if there is anything in these Terms of Business that you do not understand.

Condition of Use

Please read these Terms of Business carefully. They will form an important part of any contract between us, your underwriters and you. By proceeding on our website and/or applying to us for insurance by telephone you agree to be bound by these terms, which, by proceeding, you confirm you have read and understood.

We draw your attention in particular to the following sections headed:

- Your responsibilities (section 3)
- Remuneration and sales (section 4)
- Fees (section 5.2)
- Cancellation right (section 6.1)
- Limitation of our liability (section 7)

In addition you acknowledge and agree that the insurer we work with may, from time to time, change its customer policies or trading conditions with their brokers and there may be changes to the law or regulations applicable to our business.

Accordingly, from time to time, the terms and conditions of these Terms of Business may need to be updated or amended without prior notice to you to take account of these changes.

If you renew your contract with your insurer, or purchase a new product or service from us, you will be bound by the then current Terms of Business, which may differ from these.

It is therefore important that you visit our website to review any key changes as you will be bound by them.

2. Our Services

2.1 Tied agent

We only offer insurance products from the insurer Red Sands Insurance Company (Europe) Limited. We do not give advice or make personal recommendations in connection with any insurance product. We may ask some questions to narrow down the selection of products that we will provide details on and/or to provide you with a quotation, leaving you to make your own decision as to how you wish to proceed and whether a particular product fulfils your specific insurance requirements. If you decide to proceed with a product, your contract of insurance is with the insurer and not Gator Bikesure.

2.2 Placing business and quotes provided to you

Our role will begin with assessing your insurance requirements based on the information you have provided to us. We will then determine whether or not one of our insurance products will be suitable to meet those requirements and that you meet the eligibility criteria. We will tell you the type and scope of cover provided, the insurer and the associated costs. You may then choose whether or not to proceed with the insurance.

Our quotations are valid for 30 days from the date of issue or until the date you request cover to start, whichever is the sooner.

Unless otherwise agreed we will send you documentation confirming the basis of the cover secured on your behalf, including details of the insurer, with a debit note showing separately, where applicable, all the amounts payable. The date that the money is due together with any penalties for late payment will be clearly stated to you.

Please see section 3.2 regarding your responsibility to review the documentation we send to you to confirm that cover is in accordance with your instructions.

2.3 Renewal of your insurance/change of insurer

You authorise us to provide you with the insurance product we notify you about and/or to cancel your existing insurance and provide you with the replacement insurance product unless you tell us otherwise before the new insurance starts. In respect of:

- (a) an annual policy: approximately 6 weeks before the end of the term of your insurance we will contact you with details of the insurer's terms for renewal where these differ from your existing terms; and
- (b) a monthly policy: approximately 6 weeks before the annual anniversary of the inception of the initial monthly term of your insurance, we will review the terms of your insurance and will contact you with details of the insurer's terms for renewal where these terms differ from your existing terms.

From time to time we may consider it appropriate or in your interests to change the insurer underwriting our insurance products or to cancel your existing insurance product before the end of its term (if the terms of your insurance allows for cancellation) and transfer your insurance to a new insurance underwriter which we believe offers a broadly similar or better level of insurance cover or benefits and the transfer of which is at no extra cost to you. We will provide you with details of the new insurer and the terms of the insurance product we are able to offer to you. Write to us at the address detailed in section 1 if you do not wish to receive this information. You may also ask us not to provide you with this information at any time by telephoning us on 0844 288 0003/4.

When we arrange insurance on your behalf you will provide us and/or the insurer underwriting your insurance product with your payment details for the purpose of processing payment for the insurance product. Where applicable, these details will also be used by us/them to continue renew your insurance at the end of the term of your insurance product. If we change the insurer underwriting your insurance product, you authorise us and the existing insurer underwriting your insurance product to provide your payment details to the new insurer. Your payment details will only be used to continue/renew your insurance, with either the existing or new insurance underwriter if you have not provided us with contrary instructions after we have notified you of the details of the new insurer/insurer's terms for renewal (as applicable).

Please see section 3.2 regarding your responsibility to review the documentation we send to you to confirm that cover is in accordance with your instructions.

3. Your Responsibilities

3.1 Disclosure by you

It is very important that the information given to us when (i) buying a policy (ii) completing a claims form and (iii) giving declarations to the insurer is correct.

Before you take out a policy, you will be asked questions and your responses to us will be provided to the insurer. It is your responsibility to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to your insurer when you take out your insurance policy.

Please note if you make such a misrepresentation to your insurer this could invalidate your insurance cover, resulting in your claim not being paid or not being paid in full.

In such circumstances, the insurer may in addition have a right to retain your premium.

3.2 Reviewing information and documents sent to you

Where insurance has been arranged via the internet or by telephone, it is your responsibility to check and confirm the information in the forms or declarations completed on your behalf are correct, in accordance with your instructions and to advise us where an amendment is required. If you have any questions in relation to the coverage, limits or other terms and conditions, or any concerns that we have not implemented your instructions correctly, please contact us immediately.

You should also review the insurance premium payment terms that we advise to you.

All premium payment terms must be met or the insurer will have the right to cancel the cover. We will also advise of any charges additional to the insurance premium.

You are advised to keep copies of any correspondence you send to us or direct to your insurer.

3.3 Payment

We normally accept payment by direct debit and most credit or debit cards.

In the absence of any alternative terms agreed with you in writing (for instance, where we agree payment by instalments) our payment terms are as follows:

- New policies and renewal policies – payment due according to payment term selected. If annual payment selected then due prior to inception or renewal of the policy, if monthly payment selected then due as direct debit on your account is processed.

3.4 Claims

You are responsible for notifying claims or potential circumstances that may give rise to a claim. To ensure full protection under your policy you should familiarise yourself with the coverage conditions or other procedures relating to the notification of claims. Failure to adhere to the notification requirements particularly timing, as set out in the policy, may entitle the insurer to deny your claim.

In presenting a claim it is your responsibility to disclose all facts, which are material to the claim.

3.5 Change in circumstances

You will advise us as soon as reasonably practicable of any changes in your circumstances that may affect the services to be provided by us or the cover provided under your insurance policy.

4. Remuneration and Sales

We derive our earnings from commission paid to us by the insurance company with whom we have placed your insurance which apply for transactions throughout the policy term.

We may have an agreement with the insurer and/or other third party providers that if our account with them meets certain pre-agreed volume or profit targets during a defined period then we will receive additional remuneration.

We will take commission due to us upon receipt of your premium unless the terms of business between us and the insurer provider specifies otherwise.

5. Premiums and Fees

5.1 Insurance premiums

We collect and hold insurance premiums as agent of the insurer. Premiums received by us will be treated as having been received by the insurer whereas claims payments and or premium refunds will only be treated as having been received by you when they are actually paid to you.

5.2 Fees

Commissions earned are non refundable in the event of cancellation or amendment of your policy or termination of our services. Sometimes there is no return premium, for example, following a claim or where the policy does not provide for it.

In the absence of any other agreement, the non-payment of any premium or non receipt of documents may be taken as your instruction to cancel cover. If we do not receive your instructions and payment prior to the date of renewal, we reserve the right (but without obligation) to renew the policy and (in the case of direct debit instalment payments) to continue to accept payment from you unless and until you advise us or your insurance company in writing that you wish to cancel your policy. In circumstances where we have assumed (because you have not advised to the contrary) that renewal is not required you may be liable to make payment to us and/or your insurance company for any cover provided.

There is a non-refundable administration fee of £10 to provide you with a copy of your Personal Data (as defined in section 8 below).

6. Cancellation and Other Rights

6.1 Cancellation right

You have a right to cancel up to 14 days from a) the date you receive the policy setting out its terms and conditions or the renewal policy setting out its terms and conditions or b) the date that cover is effected under the policy or the renewal policy, as applicable, whichever is the later.

If you wish to exercise your right of cancellation you should either contact Gator Bikesure (whose details are provided in section 1) or your insurer either by telephone or in writing within the time constraints set out in your policy document.

Should you decide to exercise this cancellation right, you will be entitled to a refund of premium less an appropriate pro-rata charge for the period of cover given before the cancellation right was invoked. Should any claim occur prior to the exercise of the cancellation right where the claim terminates the insurance cover, the insurer may not allow a refund of any of the premium paid.

Please also see the provisions set out in section 5.2 (Fees).

6.2 Complaints

When a complaint is received from you in relation to the insurance product you have taken out, we will promptly provide you with a written acknowledgement of receipt. The acknowledgement will contain details of the person handling the complaint.

Your complaint will be handled by a dedicated complaints investigator and they will not have been directly involved in the matter which is the subject of the complaint.

They can be contacted at the following address:

Gator Bikesure Limited,
1ST Floor, 5 St Helens Place, London, EC3A 6AB

Whilst Gator Bikesure will always look to resolve your complaint in the quickest time possible, in accordance with guidelines laid down by the FCA, we must write to you with a final response to your complaint within eight weeks of receiving your complaint.

Upon receipt of Gator Bikesure' final response to your complaint, should you remain unhappy, you will then have the right to refer the complaint to the Financial Ombudsman Service. Gator Bikesure will provide you with a copy of the Financial Ombudsman Service's Leaflet 'Your Complaint and the Ombudsman' and a statement confirming that an approach can be made to the Financial Ombudsman Service.

The Financial Ombudsman Service can be contacted at the following address:

Financial Ombudsman Service, South Quay Plaza,
183 Marsh Wall, London,
E14 9SR

Telephone: 0800 0 234 567

In deciding whether or not to uphold a complaint, Gator Bikesure may liaise with your insurer and may consider any relevant guidance published by the FCA, the Financial Ombudsman Service and any other relevant regulatory guidance previously published.

Using your own solicitor or other third party complaint handling firm does not affect how we review your complaint and Gator Bikesure will not charge you to investigate your complain. However, please be aware that:

- Gator Bikesure will not be liable for any costs incurred if you decide to employ a third party to handle your complaint during this review (please also see section 7 - Limitation of our liability below).
- Where your complaint is upheld and redress is due, payment will, in general, be paid to the complainant direct who has already paid for any costs on your behalf.

6.3 Compensation

We are covered by the Financial Services Compensation Scheme ("FSCS") which is the UK's statutory fund of last resort for customers of financial services. This means that depending on the nature and circumstances of the claim, and subject to the FSCS's applicable financial limitations at the time, you may be entitled to compensation from the FSCS if we are unable, or likely to be unable, to meet our obligations.

Further information is available from the FSCS who can be contacted by telephone 0800 678 1100 or 020 7741 4100 and by email via their website at: www.fscs.org.uk/contact-us/.

7. Limitation of our Liability

Nothing in these general terms of business excludes or limits our liability for death or personal injury caused by our negligence, for any matter which it would be illegal for us to exclude or attempt to exclude its liability or for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation.

Our total liability to you in respect of all losses arising as a direct consequence of any negligent performance of our services shall not exceed £1,200,000.

For a claim in respect of any other losses arising under or in connection with our agreement our liability shall be limited to £350; but no liability shall arise for:

- (i) any additional cost of working, consequential or economic loss including, without limitation, loss of business, loss of revenue, loss of profit, loss of opportunity and/or loss of contracts (whether direct or indirect); and/or

- (ii) in respect of any claim for breach of contract, negligence, breach of statutory duty or other claim howsoever arising in respect of any delay or failure by us to perform any of our obligations in connection with the services where such delay or failure results directly or indirectly from any of your acts or omissions or those acting on your behalf.
